Benchmarking Infrastructure Development 2025 is a product of the World Bank's Infrastructure Finance, PPPs, and Guarantees (IPG) Group. It was prepared by a team led by Fernanda Ruiz Nuñez and Mikel Tejada Ibañez. Guangzhe Chen, Aisha Williams, Mustafa Zakir Hussain , and Aijaz Ahmad, provided overall guidance during the preparation of this assessment. The core team members included Iana Djekic, Isabela Franco Emerick Albergaria, and Maroi Kouka. Alejandro Sicra provided data analysis. The team would like to offer special thanks to the formal peer reviewers of this assessment.

The team is indebted to the following individuals for the pro bono feedback and guidance at the various stages of the project, particularly during the development of the survey document. The report's media and outreach strategy are managed by Erin Scronce and Alia Nankoe. The BID material was edited by Luba Vangelova and designed by Base Three Studio.

Benchmarking Infrastructure Development 2025 would not have been possible without the generous contributions of a network of local public-private partnership (PPP) legal experts, private sector operators, academics, government officials, and other professionals administering or advising on PPP procurement processes in the 140 economies surveyed. The names of the contributors wishing to be acknowledged individually are listed at the end of the report and are made available at: http://bpp.worldbank.org.
